U.S. DISTRICT COURT
USDC-05-11348 NO

v.

ROBERT MURPHY, et al.,
Defendants.

PLAINTIFF'S EMERGENCY MOTION FOR COURT ORDER

Now comes the pro se Plaintiff and moves this Honorable Court for an emergency protective order against the defendants.

Plaintiff moves that this Honorable Court ORDER the defendants to photocopy all plaintiff's legal materials submitted by him in front of him, without said documents being removed from his immediate sight nor having said documents read by any defendant or privy of any defendant, and that said photocopies must be made without delay.

As grounds plaintiff states the following under pains and penalties of perjury and request the Court to accept the following as a sworn affidavit from plaintiff.

1. On countless occasions this facility and/or the employees of said facility, including the defendants of this and or numerous other state or federal civil actions filed by Plaintiff, have denied Plaintiff photocopies, have issued disciplinary reports to plaintiff for the contents of his legal documents submitted to be photocopied.

2. On countless occasions Plaintiff has brought to the immediate attention of the facility employees and/or defendants the case cites of cases that show that the actions of said individuals

Rule 26(b) (3), 28 U.S.C.A. -- U.S. v. Adlman, 68 F.3d 1495, on remand 1996 WL 84502, vacated 134 F.3d 1194. -- Fed. Civ. Proc. 1600 (3).

3. Work product privilege was designed to prevent unwarranted inquires into files and mental impressions of an attorney and recognizes that it is essential that a lawyer work with a certain degree of privacy, free from unnecessary intrusion by imposing parties and their counsel. See Murray v. Stuckey's Inc. 193 F.R.D. 151 -- Fed.Civ.Proc. 1600(3).

CONCLUSION

1. It is well established by case law that a pro se litigant must obey all rules and regulations and procedure of civil litigation just as if he were an attorney. Based on this fact plaintiff also has the right to expect certain rights of privacy to his legal documents as opposing counsel enjoys.

2. As seen in the attached copies of two separate motions, Exhibit A and Exhibit B, Plaintiff has made issue of this type of matter against the defendants in the past.

3. As seen in Exhibit C Plaintiff clearly indicates what the material is that he requests copies of. There is no legitimate interest for the defendants and or privies of defendants and especially Department of Correction Legal Division at Nemansket Correctional Facility to be reading the legal documents.

4. As clearly seen in Exhibit C defendants took advantage of information illegally obtained to take preventive action against Plaintiff's motions being copied and submitted to this Court.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Court Grant the following.

1. Order the Defendants to cease any and all practices of reading, scanning, or otherwise inspecting Plaintiff's legal documents.
2. Order the defendants to photocopy all plaintiff's legal documents he submits to library officials without delay and undo inspection of said legal documents. (Plaintiff here and now states that he has no objection to a library official purusing the legal documents he submits for copying for the purpose of ensuring that no contraband such as child pornography is being copied. Any and all other documentation is subject to Plaintiff's determination as to whether it is necessary or not for his litigations).
3. Issue punitive sanctions upon the defendants for the actions described above against the Plaintiff.
4. Order the defendants take all necessary steps to prevent any and all future simular acts against Plaintiff.

EMERGENCY MOTION FOR COURT ORDER

Now comes the pro se Plaintiff and moves this Honorable Court for an emergency motion for court order

Plaintiff's moves that this Honorable Court ORDER the defendants (Mass Department of Corrections) to photo copy case law and other research matter Plaintiff requires for the preparation of his legal action, and to photo copy legal pleadings in his sight.

As grounds thereof, Plaintiff states the following.

1. As a pro se litigant, Plaintiff is held to the same rules and procedures as counsel for the defendants.
2. Plaintiff is a patient at the Nemansket Correctional Facility in Bridgewater Massachusetts. Commonly, though not entirely legally referred to as the Massachusetts Treatment Center by the defendants.
3. Plaintiff has a very limited access time to the Law Library at the facility he is presently serving a day to life civil commitment sentence at. Approximately two hours a day during business days only.
4. Due to circumstances beyond the control of Plaintiff his actual access to the law library is severely reduced as the defendants routinely close the library early and or simply do not open it.

5. Plaintiff has approximately twenty legal actions being actively litigated in the Courts of the Commonwealth. This includes, Plymouth Superior Court, Worcester Superior Court, Suffolk Superior Court, United States District Court, 1st Circuit Court of Appeals, and the State Court of Appeals.

6. Plaintiff has the absolute right to exercise his United States Constitutional Rights by pursuing legal recourse as he is doing.

7. Plaintiff is being deprived access to the law library by the very defendants he is seeking legal action against.

8. Plaintiff is indigent and can not obtain the legal research materials he requires from any other source.

9. Plaintiff has a medical condition which prevents him from being able to hand write the many legal pleadings he must for all his combined actions and legal pursuits. The only access he has to a typewriter is those supplied in the law library during the limited access time Plaintiff has available to him by the defendants.

10. Plaintiff very simply can not physically conduct the necessary research and type the necessary pleading and other legal documents in the limited time he is given by the defendants in the facilities law library.

11. The fact that Plaintiff is indigent and civilly committed must not weigh against his right to equal and meaningful access to the Courts such as the defendants counsel are afforded at the same expense to the tax payers of this Commonwealth.

12. Plaintiff is litigating against the department of Correction and its public employees. This in itself puts the Plaintiff in a sensitive position as he must trust the integrity of those he is sueing and or fellow employees of those he is actively sueing in this and/or other cases.

13. Plaintiff is forced, pursuant to consistantly changing rules and regulations regarding photocopying of legal material, to hand over his legal documents to said defendants and or fellow employees of said defendants. Said legal documents are then taken out of the sight of Plaintiff for a period up to 48 hours from the time Plaintiff turns said materials in for legal copying.

14. Plaintiff having his legal documents held out of his sight for upwards of 48 hours is subjected to having his legal documents read, scanned and or forwarded to the defendants counsel thus giving the defendants an even further litigating advantage over the pro se Plaintiff.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff moves that this Honorable Court issues an order against the defendants ordering that:

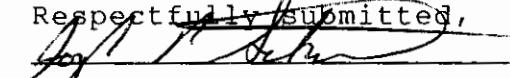

1. Said defendants photocopy research material for Plaintiff as needed and requested in writing by said Plaintiff.

2. That said legal research materials be photo copied within 24 hours of Plaintiff's written submitted request

3. Defendants shall photo copy plaintiff legal materials for this action without reading the contents of said materials, shall not remove said materials from the immediate sight of Plaintiff, and shall photo copy said material in the presence of Plaintiff without delay.

ROBERT MURPHY, et al.,

DEFENDANTS.

(EMERGENCY MOTION FOR COURT ORDER)

Now comes the pro se Plaintiff and hereby moves for an EMERGENCY MOTION FOR COURT ORDER.

Plaintiff moves that this Honorable Court issue an ORDER to Robert Murphy, Superintendant at the Nemansket Correctional Facility in Bridgewater Massachusetts, whom is employed by the Department of Correction. an agency of the Commonwealth's.

Plaintiff's purposed ORDER is as follows:

1. Robert Murphy shall have ALL MAIL from Plaintiff pertaining to the above captioned action processed free of any and all costs to the Plaintiff,
2. Robert Murphy shall ensure that Plaintiff has the opportunity to mail out any and all mail pertaining to the above captioned action on a daily basis,
3. Robert Murphy shall ensure that Plaintiff's mail pertaining to the above captioned action has sufficient postage afixed for 1st Class mailing in the United States Postal Service at no charge to said Plaintiff.
4. Robert Murphy shall ensure that any and all mail collected from Plaintiff, on a daily basis, shall be processed as described above in paragraphs 1 through 3, and have said mail delivered to a United States Post Office the same day,

5. Robert Murphy shall ensure that a mail log be maintained by an official at the Nemansket Correctional Facility for the specific purpose of maintaining an ongoing record of the specific legal document, ie. "Motion For Order", "Correspondence to Attorney" regarding a specific case docket number/name and to whom it is being mailed to,

6. Robert Murphy shall ensure that the above noted mail log is accessible to Plaintiff upon verbal and/or written request within 24 hours of such request,

7. Robert Murphy shall ensure that each entry in the above mail log is signed by the official accepting the mail from Plaintiff as well as the Plaintiff himself so as to ensure no misunderstanding as to what was mailed and when it was accepted by the Department Of Correction Official,

8. ANY and ALL mail pertaining to the above captioned action must not be subjected to any censorship by officials of the Department of Correction,

9. ANY and ALL mail pertaining to the above captioned action shall be clearly identified on the front left bottom corner of the mailing envelope so as to prevent "accidental" censorship by any Department of Correction official said mail is NOT addressed to,

10. Robert Murphy shall ensure that ANY and ALL documents of any description deemed relevant to the above captioned action by the Plaintiff shall be photo copied as Plaintiff requests whether or not said document(s) is accompanied by a cover letter or motion.

11. Plaintiff shall only have to inform the Facility law library librarian that said documents are for the above captioned action,

12. ANY and ALL documents submitted by Plaintiff for photo copying SHALL NOT be taken out of the immediate sight of said Plaintiff under any circumstances, and SHALL BE photo copied as he waits for said copies in the presence of the photo copy machine,

13. ANY and ALL documents submitted for the purpose of being photo copied SHALL NOT be censored, scanned, read, or in any way transferred to any Department of Correction Office(r),

14. ANY and ALL documents requiring photo copying by Plaintiff SHALL BE reviewed by the law library librarian Natalya Pushkina and/or the Library Clerk Manuel Bothelo, FHS employees,

15. With regards to the above paragraph, "REVIEWED" for the purpose of this ORDER shall have the specific meaning and action related to it as the act of looking at the first page of the documents for the purpose of ensuring that the docket number and/or case name is noted. Furthermore, a full review of the remaining pages shall be allowed for the sole purpose of ensuring that no sexually explicit photos of children are present.

16. Plaintiff SHALL NOT be limited to the number of photo copies he may receive, so long as he provides the names of the individuals he intends to forward a copy of said material to. Said individuals NEED NOT be Courts or Lawyers.

17. With regards to free postage in the above docketed case, Plaintiff shall not be limited to whom he may send material to relevant to this action free of cost. There SHALL NOT be a limit of how much or to whom Plaintiff may mail documents relevant to this above action to,

18. With regards to photo copying material for the above captioned action, there SHALL be NO limit as to what may be copiee or how many copies may be obtained so long as Plaintiff shows a reasonable cause for the request,

As grounds to support the above requested ORDER, Plaintiff states the following:

19. Respondent has been declared indigent by this Court.
20. The Department of Correction Officials at Nemansket Correctional Facility have photo copied and attempted to introduce as evidence against Plaintiff in his MGL c. 123A Civil Commitment Probably Cause Hearing in Worcester Superior Court C.A.#02-1529-A privileged client-attorney correspondence, and did use said evidence against Plaintiff during the Trial aspect of the case, even though the presiding Justice at the P.C. Hearing disallowed such evidence.

21. Plaintiff, by law, is not obligated to turn over any information to the defendants short of a discovery motion/hearing. Plaintiff is acting pro se in the above captioned action and his strategy will be compromised if he is forced to continue to allow the defendants to have such easy access to his legal materials while being photo copied.

22. As a pro se litigant, Plaintiff has the same obligations as that of defendants counsel. With this in mind, and the interest of FAIR and EQUAL JUSTICE, Plaintiff must be afforded the same confidentiality as defendants counsel.

23. The Department of Correction and its employees have a vested interest in obtaining information to use against me. The questionable manner they go about fulfilling this interest has already been proven in open court as described above in ¶ 20,

24. Robert Murphy and/or the Department of Correction have taken deliberate and purposeful action to create barriers to prevent Plaintiff from pursuing his legal claims. See attached Exhibit 1,

25. Robert Murphy and/or the Department of Correction and/or other Department of Corrections officials have changed standing policy for the specific purpose of avoiding the costs of postage for indigent patients legal mail to their attorney. See attached Exhibit 2,

26. Robert Murphy and/or Steven Fairly, named defendants in the specific action, issued orders to have Plaintiff's legal mail confiscated and held in the Facilities Property Room in blatant defiance of a Court's Order. See Exhibits 3 and 1,

27. Robert Murphy has changed standing policy regarding photo copies, and since this time a huge amount of complaints have been made but nothing has changed to correct the problems. See attached Exhibits 4 and 5,

28. Plaintiff has sought and received an order regarding the processing of his legal mail pertaining to PLCV2006-00490-B and Robert Murphy has simply ignored the Order, see Exhibit 1,

29. Plaintiff's requested ORDER in no way creates a burden for the defendants or the Commonwealth, or the Department of Corrections as Plaintiff has been declared indigent by this court pursuant to the laws of said Commonwealth. Furthermore, Plaintiff's case materials be photo copied with or without the above ORDER. The only matter to be affected is the fact that the defendant's and/or the Department of Correction and its various public employees shall no longer be allowed the time and access to Plaintiff's legal material enabling them to scan, photo copy for their own use, or otherwise tamper with said legal material while outside the custody and/or direct view of Plaintiff

30. Plaintiff has and shall again reiterate the fact that he fully understands that he is not the only patient in this Facility with such legal copy requests. Plaintiff is very willing to wait his turn for photo copies, and states that with the provisions above he foresees very little conflict of having to wait for other patients legal materials to be photo copied as it is now a new procedure for the librarian to take all legal material to be copied out of the law library to be scanned, viewed and other unknown possibilities by Department of Corrections Officials. During this period of time in which no copies are being made, Plaintiff's materials can be copied after the librarian and/or the library aid gives the material a courtesy viewing to ensure no sexually explicit material is being introduced with the material for copying.

31. Plaintiff further informs this Court that the Department of Correction in fact does not, by contract, operate the law library. Forensic Health Services holds this contract and allows the Department Corrections to control said library unopposed.

32. Plaintiff has the absolute right by state and federal statute to use any and all evidence he wishes to strengthen his case for litigation and trial. The Department of Correction and/or any of its public employees/defendants may not prevent Plaintiff from exercising his rights and building his actions in ways said Plaintiff deems correct and proper to justify his end goals. The Department of Correction, its' public employees and/or named defendants may not enact rules and regulations with the sole purpose or unintended purpose and effect that chills the Plaintiff's ability to litigate his actions in a meaningful way.

IN CONCLUSSION Plaintiff states that he can and shall provide this Honorable Court with a voluminous amount of documented evidence in support of his allegations. Plaintiff has filed said materials in this and other Courts of the Commonwealth as exhibits in various motions seeking the Courts Judicial Help in Stopping the wide ranging and long lasting abuse Plaintiff is forced to endure at the hands of corrupt Department of Correction officials such as Robert Murphy.

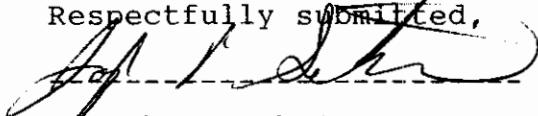

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays this Honorable Court GRANT the above Motion For Court Order and issue said order to the Department of Corrections Legal Division at 70 Franklin Street, Suite 600 Boston/Legal Division at Nemansket Correctional Facility at 30 Administration Road Bridgewater and to Robert Murphy at Nemansket Correctional Facility 30 Administration Road Bridgewater, so as the defendants have no excuse or reason to claim they are unaware of any such order.

Plaintiff further requests that this Court only grant the defendants a maximum of fourteen days to file an opposition as this matter in its overall context can not withstand a long delay.
